

I would not like to see the "Do Not Call Program" abolished. These calls have been a thorn in my side for such a long time. My phone has been fairly quiet since being put on the Do Not Call Program list but I see just recently some are getting away with these nuisance calls. I resent being called and having my time interrupted by these people. I am requesting that you keep the "Do Not Call Program".